I. Permission to Participate in Off-Campus Study
Students can study abroad spring of the sophomore year, throughout the junior year, or fall of the senior year (with permission from their major(s) department, for a total of no more than two semesters. Note that permission to participate in the Swarthmore Semester/Year Abroad Program requires that you maintain good academic and conduct standing at the College and that your account does not have any outstanding charges. Eligible students must have completed on average four credits per semester. Students will jeopardize their ability to participate in study abroad as part of the Semester/Year Abroad Program with incompletes as part of their academic record. The deadline for the completion of incompletes will reflect the need to meet deadlines relating to acceptance to abroad programs and/or to the submission of acceptance forms, deposits, the purchase of airfares, applying for visas, etc. Normally students will have been accepted into a major, or in the case of sophomores, have a plan for applying for a major.

The Off-Campus Study office (OCS) and the Dean’s office meet to review student standing and to determine eligibility. Students must also meet the eligibility requirements of the programs to which they apply.

Note: Permission to participate in Off-Campus Study can be revoked at any time if the student no longer meets the stated eligibility requirements of Swarthmore College and/or the Off-Campus Study program.

You must withdraw from any programs you do not plan on attending, both in the OCS online system and directly with the programs to which you applied.

II. Your Off-Campus Study Homepage and Acceptance Procedures

1. Once you have been admitted to a study abroad program, notify OCS and let us know if you accept the offer.

2. Also notify your study abroad program or university that you accept their offer and follow their admission instructions. Follow instructions from the program to apply for housing and to attend the orientation program (if that is a separate process).

3. Once we are notified that you are accepting the offer of admission to your program or university, OCS will change your status in our application system from pending to accepted. You should then log in and change your status to committed. You will then have a check-list of items to complete.

The following items in the OCS application system will be taken care of by OCS and do not require any action on your part:

Bursar Office Clearance
Deans Office Permission to Participate
The following must be completed in order for OCS to pay deposits (OCS only pays for non-refundable deposits) or travel. You should complete the following within one week of accepting your acceptance offer:

1. Call the Worth Health Center to schedule a travel health consultation (610-328-8058)
   Completion of Items on your OCS Homepage:
2. Acceptance of Program Offer
3. Emergency Contact Approval
4. Health Insurance Verification
5. Student Athlete Questionnaire
6. Withdrawal/Refund Program Policy
7. Acceptance of Offer of Admission
8. CISI Health and Travel Insurance
9. Financial Aid Policy
10. Health Insurance Verification
11. Non-Refundable Application Fees, Program Deposits & Program Fees
12. Payment Plan and Withdrawal/Refund Policy for Off-Campus Study
13. Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk
14. Study Abroad Registration and Credit Policy
15. Travel Health Consultation Waiver
16. U.S. State Department and Centers for Disease Control Resources
17. Zika Virus Travel Alert
18. Supplemental Acknowledgement of Risk (for travel to countries with US State Department travel warnings)

In addition to all of the above, the following must be completed by December 5. This is the final deadline to arrange travel, submit requests for pre-estimation of credit, complete your travel health consultation, and complete any other materials in your OCS checklist, or required by your study abroad program.

1. Arrange travel with Key Travel (if approved by OCS)
2. Travel health consultation/completion of student health record
3. Completion of Pre-estimation of Credit
4. Group Post-Admission Planning Session
5. Completion of any outstanding items from the OCS application and post-admission check lists
6. Post-Admission Planning Session with an OCS Staff Member: The following information will be covered in this session along with other important preparation matters: Financial planning/budgets for the spring semester; paying deposits and invoices for tuition, room and board (be sure to forward all requests for payment to OCS); the payment plan and withdrawal/refund policy; housing applications; credit approval questions; applying for a student visa (if required); travel questions (make sure you understand your arrival and departure dates)

III. Mark your calendar for the Mandatory Semester/Year Abroad Pre-Departure Gathering – December 5. 6-8:30pm – Scheuer Room/Kohlberg. This is a required session so be sure to mark your calendar. This will be the final wrap-up of important information and dinner will be provided. You will be required to RSVP. Other special topic sessions are offered throughout the semester to help prepare you for the abroad experience.

IV. STUDENT VISA: Research whether you are required to apply for a student visa. If yes, research the process carefully, collect necessary documents, and apply. OCS will produce a letter that indicates that we will pay for your tuition, room, and board, that can be used as part of your financial documentation when applying for a visa.

V. TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS: Once you have completed your post-admission documents and the arrival and departure dates for your program have been confirmed, OCS will notify Key Travel that you are eligible to book your travel. You will be provided with the booking form by OCS. You are not to share this form with other students. It is only issued to directly to qualified students.

OCS can pay for your round-trip airfare up to the cost of a round-trip from Philadelphia, taking into account a reasonable itinerary. You will be given a timeframe during which travel must be booked with Key Travel. If your proposed travel costs more than a round-trip flight from Philadelphia, you will be responsible to pay the additional cost directly to Key Travel.

Note that you must provide accurate dates for the start and end of your program, keeping in mind that you must participate in the orientation program and stay until all examinations and any other program requirements are completed.

Round-trip Travel Arrangements

To be eligible to arrange round-trip travel you must:

a) Be accepted to your study abroad program
b) Accept the offer of participation
c) Commit to the offer on your OCS homepage and complete the post-admission requirements (you do not have to worry about the following sections at this time: Bursar Office Clearance, Completion of Pre-estimation of Credit, Deans Office Permission to Participate, Post-Admission Planning Session with an OCS staff member, Semester/Year Abroad Pre-Departure Gathering).
d) Call the Health and Wellness Center to schedule your required travel health consultation (610-328-8058)

1. Once the above have been completed, OCS will notify Key Travel in Philadelphia that you are eligible to book your travel. We will provide them with your official travel dates. Review these dates carefully because you must plan to arrive in time for any scheduled orientation program, and you must not plan to leave before the end of the examination period. Otherwise you can plan to arrive earlier or leave later if that is permitted by your program. Keep in mind any additional living costs outside of those dates may not be covered by the College and you must make sure you have appropriate travel and health insurance for those additional dates as well.

2. OCS will send you a form that you must complete, scan and email to Key Travel. If you have questions you can call Key Travel after they have received your completed form.

   THIS IS CRITICAL! Complete the form accurately. You must know your arrival date and time (if you have been given a preferred time). You must arrange to stay until the end of the examination period for your program.

3. Swarthmore will only pay for the cost of the lowest logical airfare departing from PHL, and therefore, if the departure from another airport or deviation from the lowest logical itinerary increases the fare, any difference is the responsibility of the student.

4. IF YOU MAKE CHANGES TO YOUR TICKET AFTER IT IS ISSUED IT MAY COST HUNDREDS OF DOLLARS AND WILL BE YOUR PERSONAL COST.

5. If you withdraw from the program after the ticket is issued, you will owe the cost of the ticket to Swarthmore College.

6. Once you receive the travel form from OCS, confirm your travel dates and submit the form to Key Travel as soon as possible. When confirming dates be sure to consider the following:

   a) Check arrival date: You must arrive in time for orientation. This should be earlier than the start date of the term and classes. If you are attending a university abroad, be sure to determine when you need to arrive for orientation (you may also be required to sign up for the orientation).

   b) If applying for a student visa, make sure you do not book a ticket that will have you arrive before the start date on your visa.

   c) Be aware that many flights may leave one day and arrive the next, or when traveling west you might cross the international date line. Therefore, you should check your ARRIVAL DATE carefully!

   d) Be prepared to respond to the itinerary offered by Key Travel on the same day.

Students are expected to purchase round-trip tickets. Swarthmore will not cover the additional cost of two one-way tickets.

For students who are abroad for one semester, the travel allowance provides for one round trip. Students who are abroad for two semesters can be reimbursed for a second round-trip, according to Swarthmore College guidelines, to visit their home once during the year over the winter break. The budgeted amount cannot exceed the cost of a round-trip fare with Philadelphia as the gateway city. Students who receive a round-trip airfare to return home, will not receive a stipend to live abroad during that vacation period.

Note: More detailed information about travel is available in the Practical Matters handbook.

VI. Post-Admission Planning Session(s)
Following the OCS deadline for submission of applications, you will be contacted to schedule a meeting with Rosa Bernard, Assistant Director for Off-Campus Study. If you have not been admitted at that point in time it is still important to meet with Rosa prior to the Pre-enrollment Advising Period. Rosa will work closely with you on billing, travel allowance, insurance questions, your board and/or room arrangements while abroad (as necessary), preparing for pre-estimation of credit, student visa questions (if required), and any other preparation matters. Please make sure that you get this important work under way early.

Prior to this meeting be sure to read about policies and procedures on the Off-Campus Study website and in the Off-Campus Study handbooks. Carefully read all documents when you log in to your study abroad homepage.

VII. Finances
A. FINANCIAL AID POLICY AND STUDY ABROAD
Financial aid consideration is possible only during a normal eight-semester Swarthmore program of study and only if the student earns at least four credits each semester. Students must return to Swarthmore on schedule for the eight-semester graduation timetable. If this condition as well as those stated above is not met, continuation of financial aid will be in jeopardy.

Your eligibility for Swarthmore financial aid during study abroad will be based on Swarthmore’s actual charges and allowances for books and personal expenses as if you were living on campus. In practice, this policy allows for a more generous budget for your study abroad, since you will not pay the student activity fee, and off-campus study programs rarely expect students to buy many books. This leaves room for the expenses you might incur such as any necessary vaccinations or travel visas.

Note: Most study-abroad programs do not offer campus work opportunities, so you may wish to borrow additional funds to fill that gap. If that is the case you should discuss this option with the Financial Aid office.

B. PAYMENT PLAN
Students who study abroad and wish to receive credit for it toward the Swarthmore degree will pay to Swarthmore, for the semester or year abroad, the full cost of Swarthmore tuition, room, and board. Swarthmore will pay program tuition, room, and board on the student's behalf. The student activity fee is not charged. If room and/or board are not fully provided by the program, an appropriate amount will be provided to the student to meet this expense. Swarthmore will pay for any portion of round-trip travel not covered by the program according to established practice for determining the appropriate travel budget.

Note: Students are responsible for paying any refundable program deposits.

The payment schedule for study abroad is the same as the College payment schedule for semesters in residence. Please call the Office of Student Accounts (610 328-8394) for more information.

C. WITHDRAWAL/REFUND POLICY

1. Withdrawal before the Study Abroad Program Begins. As soon as Swarthmore makes a non-refundable payment on the student's behalf to a study abroad program (e.g., application fee, deposit, part or full payment for tuition and/or room and/or board and/or any other program costs), or obligates same, and/or as soon as Swarthmore has paid for round-trip travel in association with study abroad, the student is obligated either to pay the College full Swarthmore tuition, room, and board for the semester or year abroad (less whatever may be covered by financial aid), or to pay to Swarthmore the unrecoverable portion of the paid out or obligated amount. Failure to meet this condition will comprise an unfulfilled financial obligation on the student's part to the College. So long as the obligation remains unfulfilled, the student may be denied re-enrollment by the College; the student's College transcript may not leave the Registrar's Office; and the student will not be permitted to receive a degree from Swarthmore College. Financial aid will not be available for this purpose.

2. If the student withdraws after the program is underway, any adjustment of billed tuition, room, and board, due to involuntary or voluntary withdrawal can only be made after all financial obligations due the abroad program have been satisfied, as verified by Off-Campus Study. Once the unrecoverable portion of the paid out and/or obligated amounts have been met (these include but are not limited to the payment of tuition, room and board and round-trip travel), College charges will be reduced in a manner consistent with the charge reduction/withdrawal policy for tuition, room, and board set forth in the Swarthmore College Bulletin. In addition, if the student has received a cash advance for meals and/or lodgings and/or round-trip travel expenses, the unused part must be returned to the college before the student will be permitted to re-enroll at the college, receive an official transcript, or be graduated from the College.

3. If the student is required by the College for any reason to withdraw from the Semester/Year Abroad Program and/or to withdraw from Swarthmore College before or after being accepted by a study abroad program, the student will be ineligible to participate in the Semester/Year Abroad Program until and unless readmitted to Swarthmore. In this event, the student will be obliged to pay to Swarthmore the unrecoverable portion of any amount paid or obligated on his or her behalf by Swarthmore to a study abroad program along with funds released to the student and the cost of a purchased airfare. Failure to do so will comprise an unfulfilled financial obligation on the student's part to the College. So long as the obligation remains unfulfilled, the student will be denied re-enrollment and will not be allowed to graduate from the College, and the Registrar’s Office will not release the student's transcript.

D. BUDGETING WHILE ABROAD

1. Obligatory Expenses: Some programs provide you with lodging and all of your regular meals. If you attend one of these programs, you will not have to do any budgeting for room and board. Other programs will require you to make some or all of the payments for food or lodging, or both. In all such cases, an amount of money adequate for these payments will be provided for you in advance, either by the program or by Swarthmore College, or both.

If money for room and/or board expenses is advanced to you, it is imperative that you understand clearly in advance what your obligatory expenses will be, how much money you have to meet them, and how long this money has to last. For example, you may attend a program that provides breakfast and dinner, and gives you a cash allowance to buy your own lunch. You have to work out the relationship between the size of the allowance and the number of lunches over the time period involved. Or, lodgings are provided for you, but you are required to provide all of your meals for yourself out of a cash allowance. Or, you are expected both to rent lodgings and pay for your meals out of a cash allowance. In all such cases, it will be your responsibility to work out the budget for the time period involved.

2. Refundable Deposits: Some programs may require of you a refundable room/security deposit. Security deposits are not covered under the Semester/Year Abroad Program; you must pay this out yourself. Check with your program regarding the amount of the deposit, conditions for full refund when the program is completed, and how the deposit is to be refunded to you upon completion of the program.

3. Discretionary Expenses: These expenses include toiletries and other personal items, gifts, recreation and entertainment, shopping and vacation travel. This comes out of your own pocket, just as it does while you are at Swarthmore. A few important points here: First, it’s important to know at the beginning of your stay abroad how much you can spend, total, on discretionary expenses. Second, for ‘musts’ (e.g., toiletries), make it a point to learn where local people shop for these items, and do your shopping there. Be willing to purchase local products that are comparable to those you use at home. If you are someplace where the cost of living is significantly higher than here, pick and choose your activities carefully, in line with your budget. Consider purchasing an International Student I.D. Card to help you with discounts (sold by the Off-Campus Study Office) after first determining if it will be useful where you will live abroad. Rules of thumb: if you are attending a university, the recreational practices of university students from the host country will usually be affordable by you. This should also be the case if you are staying with a host family or if you participate in program-recommended activities. If you go to those places in your city or locale where lots of Americans hang out you may expect to spend a lot more.
4. Additional Expenses: Some of the items that you will need to budget for that are not paid for by Swarthmore College are books, printing costs, gym memberships, memberships in student organizations, bedding, visas, and travel immunizations and medications. Please note that for those students who receive financial aid from Swarthmore College, the allowances that have been allocated for books and personal expenses at Swarthmore still apply. The Dean’s Office has a discretionary fund that may apply in some cases to some of these expenses for students with a demonstrated financial need.

5. How Much Money Will You Need? If you are going to have obligatory expenses, as described above, it should be clear to you before you go what they will be and how you will be provided with the funds to meet them. For discretionary expenses, normally your program can advise you very specifically about this. This advice will be informed by the standard of living that the program deems suitable for its participants.

6. Budgeting: A budgeting guide is provided in the appendix. This will help guide you as you plan your finances for the semester or year abroad.

B. LOCAL TRANSPORTATION IN COUNTRY

If you have to take public transportation to and from classes, please contact the Off-Campus Study Office to determine if you are eligible for a local travel allowance.

VIII. Academic Matters

A. YOUR COURSE LOAD ABROAD

At Swarthmore, the semester course credit is the unit of credit. One semester course credit is normally equivalent to 4 semester hours elsewhere. Four or five units of credit comprise a normal full semester. You are required to take a course load that corresponds to what will transfer back to Swarthmore as at least four credits per semester or eight credits per year. Students are eligible to earn up to a maximum of five credits per semester, or up to a maximum of ten credits per year. Receiving more than five credits per semester or ten credits per year is not permitted.

Swarthmore requires that you, while abroad, take a full academic load by the standards of the program or university you are attending. Sometimes this is a set number of courses or credits, e.g., at many universities four equally weighted courses comprise a full semester, or 15 units of credit comprise a full semester. For other programs or universities, 'full academic load' is defined by positing a range, e.g., four or five courses, 16 to 20 credits. For such situations, Swarthmore students are required to be at the upper end of the range, e.g., five courses or 19 or 20 credits. Swarthmore permits you to take more than a full load. If you wish to do so, and if the program requires approval of the home institution, this office will be glad to provide you with a supporting letter. If you have any uncertainty as to what 'full academic load' means for your program or university, please be in touch with OCS.
And please note this regulation is in force irrespective of how much Swarthmore credit you have in hand when you depart, and/or what you believe your credit needs to be for your semester or year abroad. No exceptions.

B. PRE-ESTIMATION OF CREDIT
Students will be advised on how to use the online OCS Credit Evaluation System which is accessible through my Swarthmore. Do not enter courses in the system until you are advised to do so.

You will need to obtain course descriptions and whenever possible, syllabi of proposed courses for the pre-estimation of credit process. You are encouraged to get more than a minimum number of courses approved, to contribute to some flexibility for final course approval should that take place while abroad.

Courses can be approved for credit in the following two ways:

1. Courses proposed for Off-Campus Study credit will be reviewed by the Off-Campus Study Faculty Adviser. Courses that are approved for Off-Campus Study credit (OCST) cannot be changed to credit from a department or program at a later time. At a later date a department or program can choose to count OCST credit as credit toward the major or minor, but the OCST designation will remain on the transcript. In most cases students receive auto-credit for these courses. The extra work credit option is not available for OCST courses.

2. Courses proposed for credit by academic departments or programs for major, minor, or distributional credit must be approved for evaluation for credit by chairs (or other nominated person) of appropriate departments/programs. These departments will determine whether the student is required to submit the work that they do in the course for review by the department or program upon return to Swarthmore or whether they will receive auto-credit, that does not require further review. The chairs' pre-approval of your courses mean that they agree that, on subject matter grounds, the courses can be evaluated for credit by their departments when you return.

The chairs will also pre-estimate the amount of credit you will receive for successful completion of the courses, and will indicate whether or not their departments extend the extra work/credit added option (this option, which is available at the discretion of departments, allows you to do extra work set by the department to increase the amount of credit received for a study abroad course). The extra-work for credit option can only be used in situations in which a student needs it to obtain the expected four credits for a semester, or eight credits for a year abroad, or when extra-work for credit is specifically necessary to complete a major requirement or minor requirement, and then only with the approval of the appropriate department or program. This will be the case only as long as the semester and yearly maximums are not exceeded.

Keep in mind that it is your responsibility to ask about prerequisites that some departments/programs might have in order to get credit for courses taken abroad. You also must be aware of the limit of how many courses can be taken abroad in each subject area and counted in the major, minor, or toward graduation at Swarthmore College. Keep in mind that you cannot take the same subject matter in a course abroad that you have already taken at Swarthmore. This would result in not receiving full credit for the course at Swarthmore.

Please remember that some departments will not evaluate a course done elsewhere for Swarthmore credit unless the student has completed a course in the department, or program, here at Swarthmore prior to study abroad (e.g., history and art history - see Swarthmore College Bulletin). Additionally, if you would like to take two history courses abroad for credit, you must have already taken two history courses at Swarthmore. Some departments require that you have taken specific introductory courses before taking other courses in that discipline (e.g., economics, education, psychology). Some departments, even if you have completed work in that subject at Swarthmore, will not evaluate a course done elsewhere unless the department has pre-estimated it. If, for example, your major department has required you to complete a specific course while you are abroad, and you are thinking of replacing this course with another, be sure to be in touch about this with the chair of your major department.

If in order to graduate on time, you must take a specific course while abroad it is important to get a confirmation from the study abroad program or university that the course will be available to you at your study abroad destination. If we are getting the uncertainty message, it is your responsibility to decide whether or not to chance it.

Following the meeting with Rosa Bernard, for any course that you seek major, minor, or distributional credit, you will meet with the appropriate department credit reviewer for written pre-estimation of credit. You should provide as much information as possible (course description and syllabi). This credit review normally takes place during the pre-enrollment advising period each semester.

C. APPROVAL BY ACADEMIC ADVISOR (S)
Once you have submitted your courses for pre-estimation of credit, you should arrange to review your study abroad plans with your academic adviser. You and your advisor should review that your study abroad course of study is compatible with completing all of the requirements for the Swarthmore degree on schedule. These include thirty-two units of credit, completion of major and distribution requirements, and the twenty-course rule. Your faculty adviser will be asked to review your course selections within the OCS Credit Evaluation System.

D. SWARTHMORE COURSE REGISTRATION WHILE ABROAD
While abroad you will be registered by the Registrar’s Office for a full-time load of Off-Campus Study (OCST) credit registrations.

E. CHANGING YOUR PRE-APPROVED COURSES ONCE ABROAD
You may want or need to change your schedule of pre-approved courses when you reach your study abroad program. If you wish to change your pre-approved program of courses after you have joined the program, you will do this through the OCS Credit Evaluation System during your program’s add/drop period. Through the system, courses are added. There is no system for dropping courses; instead, the important thing is that all of the courses that you ultimately take while abroad are added and pre-estimated for credit.

Ultimately all of the courses that you take abroad must be pre-estimated for credit. Remember that you are not guaranteed credit for any courses for which you do not seek pre-estimation of credit.

F. DOCUMENTATION OF WORK COMPLETED ABROAD TO BE PRESENTED UPON YOUR RETURN

The pre-estimation of courses will estimate but not guarantee a definite amount of credit for successful completion of individual courses, except in the case of auto-credit and Off-Campus Study Credit (OCST). The final awarding of credit by departments for major, minor, or distributional credit will occur upon your return to Swarthmore. You are guaranteed to receive four credits at Swarthmore and so any deficit of credit awarded by academic departments will be awarded as OCST credit.

You are required to provide the Registrar’s Office with an official transcript certifying the work you have completed. In some cases you personally must request the transcript directly from the host university or program.

The accrediting of work done abroad should be attended to immediately upon your return, following your meeting with the OCS faculty adviser. You must submit substantiating materials as required by the departments/programs (e.g., syllabi, papers, exams). This will either be submitted through the OCS Credit Evaluation System, or the course materials will be submitted directly to the departments/programs, as per their requirements.

IT IS YOUR RESPONSIBILITY TO DOCUMENT FULLY THE ACADEMIC WORK THAT YOU DO ABROAD FOR THIS PROCEDURE.

1. Ideally, this will involve your presentation, for each course, of a syllabus and copies of all of your assigned written work (you do NOT need graded copies, any copies will do). If the syllabus does not contain an organized and complete overview of the course - e.g., assigned readings, schedule of classes and topics treated, instructional format, written assignments - then, from your knowledge of the course, you can write out an accompaniment to the syllabus which contains all of this information. Written work includes papers or essays, exams, reports (including lab reports), language class exercises, and it is a good idea to hang onto class and reading notes. If you are required to do oral reports for one or more courses, provide a brief summary of what the report consisted of and what you read in preparation for it. Whenever possible, and it is usually possible, make an extra copy of required written work before submitting it, and hang on to it, in the event that your submitted copy is not returned to you.
2. However, (1.) does not always work.
a) An example: Final exams (which often are the larger part of the course grade) are normally hand written under proctored conditions, only one copy of the exam exists, and it is never returned to the student. You can't change this. What you can do, if you face this examination situation, is return to your room as soon as the exam is over and, from memory, write out the questions and a brief summary of how you answered them (e.g., what readings you referred to, brief outline of your essays). This should take 30-45 minutes, two or three pages of writing. When possible, in advance, check with the department/program that will award credit for this course, to see if this is part of their expectation for the documentation of work completed for the course.

b) On fieldwork programs, often the required field reports or papers don't begin to express what the work actually consisted of. But you can present your field notes, and a brief written summary of the organization of your field work, topical or descriptive foci, time allocated to this and that, methods (e.g., interview, observation, participation) employed, consultations with program staff re your ongoing work, etc.

c) Often, there are out of class ‘extras’, which enhance the educational value of the course, e.g., field trips, museum visits, lectures, films, and concerts. Be prepared to present a record of these kinds of activities whether assigned or not, which for you was part of the educational experience.

These are guidelines, not an instruction manual. Re the documentation of work requirement, it’s impossible to write a manual that will specifically gloss any and every study abroad situation in which you may find yourself. The general point is: YOU will know in full detail what you did for each course you complete while abroad. It is your responsibility to devise ways fully to represent what you did for the Swarthmore faculty members who will be evaluating your study abroad courses for Swarthmore credit.

Please remember: it is the prerogative of the credit awarding departments/programs to give you less than full credit, right down to no credit at all, for courses that they judge to be insufficiently documented. If while you are abroad you have questions, for any of your courses, about what sufficient documentation of work comprises, please be in touch either with Off-Campus Study or the chair of the department that will evaluate the course, or both.

3. As per the Swarthmore Semester/Year Abroad Program guidelines you will be registered as a full-time student at Swarthmore; and you are required to complete your academic obligations to Swarthmore for this period. You are obliged to complete the evaluation of all your study abroad courses in which you earned a grade of straight C or better, regardless of how much Swarthmore credit you have. Upon completion of your study abroad program and your return to campus, and following your return meeting with the Faculty Adviser for Off-Campus Study, you will be required to submit your documentation of academic work done abroad either through the OCS Credit Evaluation System or when a department requests that materials be submitted directly to the department for review, through a Record of Departmental Materials Submission in Application for Study Abroad Credit. The deadline for completion of this process is normally five weeks after your return to campus.

Through the OCS Credit Evaluation System, departments/programs will grant credit for the academic work done abroad. Once all of the department/program and OCST credits have been awarded, the registrar’s office will remove the temporary OCST course registrations from your transcript, and the courses taken abroad will be listed on your transcript along with US letter grades. The grades are not included in a Swarthmore grade point average, except in cases in which departments/programs award actual Swarthmore credit for their courses (e.g., for the Cloud Forest program or for certain courses in the Swarthmore/Pomona/Macalester Cape Town program).

Departments/programs have until the end of the semester in which you returned to Swarthmore to complete their review of the work that you did abroad and to award final credit. You will be able to observe this process through the OCS Credit Evaluation system.

Note: If you fail to complete the credit review process within the established deadline, following your meeting with the OCS Faculty Adviser, your case will be referred to the Dean’s Office and will be subject to policies and procedures that pertain to the incompletion of academic course requirements. Any courses that were supposed to be reviewed by academic departments will remain listed as OCST courses with grades of Incomplete.

G. PRE-REGISTRATION WHILE AWAY (see Office of the Registrar website)

Students on approved Study Abroad programs should follow these instructions for how to pre-register from away.
* Try to use mySwarthmore to pre-register. Use the lettered steps below to ensure your pre-registration.
* Make note of the dates for pre-enrollment for the semester you plan to return to campus.

1. Confer with your Academic Adviser(s): The ideal is to communicate with your academic adviser(s) and/or the chair(s) of your actual or prospective major department(s) before pre-registration to make sure that whatever credits you may be earning while away as well as your future registration plans are compatible with completion of the major(s) and all other requirements for the degree on schedule with your planned graduation date. If you can't confer with your adviser before pre-registration, try to pre-register anyway, and confer with your adviser after. This should include examining in detail how, in your remaining semesters (including the ones away), all of your requirements will be met and, especially, how you will complete your major and your honors program, if you are hoping or planning to do honors.

2. Pre-Register for your Return Semester:
   * Use mySwarthmore if you can, just as if you were on campus (try this on the first day of pre-registration)
* If somehow you cannot use mySwarthmore:
  a) Tell the instructor(s) your wish to be in their course(s) or seminar(s), and then request in writing (email) to have your name entered on the list for the course(s) and/or seminar(s) offered at that future time. If you cannot tell who the instructor is, contact the Department Chair.
  * b) Also send a copy of these communications to the Off-Campus Study Office.
  * Please note: This procedure does not guarantee you membership in the course(s) and/or seminar(s) at issue. Normally, however, it will make the probability of membership the same as it would be if you were here next semester to participate in the pre-registration.

3. If you miss pre-registration, use Drop/Add

If you were not able to pre-register, you can register afterwards by completing the online Add “e-form” available on mySwarthmore “Registration”. The on-line form is routed to the faculty, who may need time to approve it, especially over a break.

H. STUDY ABROAD REGISTRATION AND CREDIT POLICY FROM THE OFFICES OF OFF-CAMPUS STUDY AND THE REGISTRAR

Please note the following registration and accreditation procedures:

1. Following admission by programs, students will - upon the approval of the Off-Campus Study Office and faculty advisers - be registered by the Registrar’s Office for a full-time load of Off-Campus Study (OCST) credit registrations. The Off-Campus Study Office will notify the Registrar’s Office, each semester, of all students to be so registered for the following semester(s).

2. Students must take all courses abroad for a grade. Students are not permitted to take courses pass/fail.

3. Note: for any abroad course to be eligible for evaluation for Swarthmore credit, it must receive a grade of straight C or better. All completed study abroad work receiving a grade of straight C or better must be evaluated for credit at Swarthmore. Study abroad work with grades lower than C is not eligible for transfer of credit to Swarthmore.

4. Upon completion of programs abroad, the notation of Incomplete (INC) will be recorded by the Registrar for all OCST registrations for which transfer of credit has not yet been approved at Swarthmore (this will be virtually all of them).

5. Returning study abroad students must submit all of their study abroad work for evaluation by Swarthmore departments/programs (with the exception of auto-credit and OCST credit). Once all credits have been finalized, the Registrar will enter it upon students’ permanent records.
6. Study abroad courses on the Swarthmore transcript will show department/program or OCST, course title, and corresponding U.S. letter grade. The grades will not count in the Swarthmore grade point average.

7. For students who were pre-estimated for four credits at Swarthmore, and who successfully completed their courses with a grade of straight “C” or better, OCST credit will be used to round up the credit to four credits, in cases in which students did not receive all of the credit that was pre-estimated by departments/programs.

8. Note: If you fail to complete the credit review process within the established deadline, following your meeting with the OCS Faculty Adviser, your case will be referred to the Dean’s Office and will be subject to policies and procedures that pertain to the incompletion of academic course requirements. Any courses that were supposed to be reviewed by academic departments will remain listed as OCST courses with grades of Incomplete.
